Unit: DPR

Reference: ECDC/AD/2023/DPR-PESHO

Applications are invited for the above Temporary Agent post at the European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control (ECDC).

Job description

ECDC plans to recruit one person for the above-mentioned vacancy. ECDC also aims to establish a reserve list, which may be used for any future vacancies in the area.

The jobholder will report to the Head of Section Sexually Transmitted Infections, Blood-borne Viruses and Tuberculosis (SBT) in the Disease Programme Unit.

The jobholder will be responsible in particular for the following areas of work:

- Scientific advice related to microbial safety of blood and blood components, tissues and cells, and organs - substances of human origin (SoHO);
- Coordination of the development, implementation and day-to-day operation of guidance and tools for preparedness activities for maintaining microbial safety of SoHO;
- Detecting, monitoring and reporting threats to SoHO, such as blood, organs, tissues and cells potentially impacted by communicable diseases;
- Coordinate a network of Member State services supporting transfusion, transplantation and medically assisted reproduction;
- Assist Member States in strengthening systems for control and prevention of infectious diseases transmission through SoHO including data collection, analysis, reporting and dissemination;
- Strengthen links and cooperation between the Centre and the National competent authorities for SoHO, and national SoHO establishments, World Health Organization, European and international bodies and other relevant networks, partners and stakeholders;
- Collaboration with the SoHO team of the European Commission and actively attend the regular meetings of the team and relevant national competent authorities;

- Commissioning and managing projects or studies, consultancies in relevant areas, carrying out and/or supervising feasibility studies regarding microbial safety of SoHO and preventive interventions;
- Coordinating and facilitating within the SoHO team and across the Centre the activities related to SoHO, including contributing to the annual work plan and providing input into relevant ECDC-funded projects on the microbial safety of SoHO;
- Contribute to other activities of ECDC, as required, in his/her field of expertise;
- May be asked to contribute to the 24/7 duty system of ECDC.
